FORTH SUNDAY OF LENT

So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see.” —Jn 9:15
Dear Parishioners,

It was Sunday afternoon, March 22, 2015, that we gathered on the site of our new church for the groundbreaking ceremony. Now almost exactly two years later, the day has come for us to gather for the Dedication of our beautiful new Church of St. George this Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. We welcome Bishop Robert Muench, priests and deacons and the laity of our Diocese to St. George for this wonderful event in our history.

The Catholic liturgy for the dedication of a new church is an extraordinary ritual. It stands out that the primary focus is on a thing (a building and an altar) rather than on a person. It borrows heavily from the seven sacraments for its meaning and symbolism. The walls and the altar are sprinkled with holy water, a reminder of baptism and a sign of purification. Like the person in baptism, confirmation, and holy orders, the walls and the altar are anointed with chrism, marking them as special and set aside for worship. The altar and the walls are enveloped in incense, a cloud of prayer being offered up to God. Echoing baptism and ordination, the altar is wrapped in new clothing, festive garments fit for the sacrificial banquet table for the Lord. Again recalling baptism, the altar is lit with candles, the light of Christ shining forth to all in this place. The Dedication Liturgy is the service by which our new church building will be dedicated for the exclusive use of our faith community in our offering worship to God.

I think back over the past five to six years and I am amazed and thankful for the process that led up to this day. The studies, the research, the consultations, the capital campaign, purchasing of property, the choosing of an architect, the town hall meetings, the prayers, the generosity, the cooperation, the hard work, etc., all seem like a blur. This is the culmination of wonderful effort, generosity, and cooperation of a large number of people. God continues to bless us in so many ways. Through the process, I continued to remind myself of the first verse of Psalm 127: “If the Lord doesn’t build the house, the workers toil in vain.” This really is the work that God blesses!

There have been so many positive comments and congratulations on a job well done. Again those congratulations go out to all of us. There are still a few things that need to be done. Our new tabernacle should be installed this week in time for the dedication. Please notice the four dedication candles that have been installed on the walls of the church. The beautiful St. Joseph statue has been placed on its pedestal. The statue of Mary stands by its place but the niche needs to be adjusted for this large statue. The Mother Teresa statue, the large holy water font by the entrance of church, the top section of the baptismal font should be installed in the coming weeks.

Please see page 7 of this bulletin for information on the first class relics that will be installed in our main altar and chapel altar as part of the Dedication liturgy.

Thanks to Fr. Brad Doyle and his committee for organizing the Open House of our new church last Sunday afternoon! I understand that there were approximately 600-700 people that took tours.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available again this Wednesday evening from 6:00-7:30 p.m. at St. George. There will a special collection this weekend for Catholic Relief Services. Please see page 5 of this bulletin for more information. Remember that there will be no 6 p.m. Mass this Sunday evening because of the Dedication!

May God bless all of us!

Love,

FR. [Signature]

St. George Mission Statement

St. George Catholic Church is an open, loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ. In support of this mission, St. George Catholic Church strives to: worship God with devotion and celebration; foster continued spiritual development and growth; provide a challenging and quality-filled Catholic educational program; listen and respond to the needs of the parish community; nurture, support and strengthen the family; reach out with love and compassion to serve those in need.
ADULT FAITH FORMATION: PANORAMA OF THE NEW TESTAMENT CONTINUES

The book study on the Panorama of the New Testament continues on Sunday, March 26th at 9:30 a.m. in the Parish Office.

THE RITE OF THE SCRUTINIES

The primary way that the Church assists the catechumens (unbaptized Elect) in the conversion process during Lent is through the celebration of the rites called Scrutinies. The Scrutinies are a ritual celebrated within the Sunday assembly on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent. These ritual celebrations are communal prayers celebrated around the elect to strengthen them to overcome the power of sin in their lives and to grow in virtue.

To scrutinize something means to examine it closely. The community does not scrutinize the catechumens; the catechumens scrutinize their own lives and allow God to scrutinize them and to heal them. The scrutinies give those who are chosen for the Easter sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, (the Elect) and indeed, the entire assembly, an opportunity to examine their own hearts and minds by the light of the Gospel.

The scrutinies include intercessions for the elect and they also include prayers of exorcism. Exorcisms are prayers for deliverance from evil and for the strength to be faithful to the gospel. The elect kneel in humility as the community prays with and for them. After these prayers are said, the elect are dismissed for further reflection on the Scriptures before the rest of the assembly celebrates the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

The second scrutiny (4th Sunday of Lent) relies on the story of the man born blind.

Each Scrutiny gospel helps all of us to reflect on our lives and help us to answer the questions: What is it that I thirst for? What blindness do I need healed? What in my life holds me bound?
Reflection of the Week

Preparation of our hearts

“May it be done to me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her. — Luke 1:38

With the Feast of the Annunciation of the Lord, we hear echoes of the thousands of other annunciations that come in and out of our lives and, as in Mary’s case, turn our world upside down. Luke puts before us a cascade of words uttered by the angel Gabriel: God is with you. Do not be afraid. Nothing will be impossible for God.

What might Mary have been doing at the time her world was upended by this visitor? The bigger question: How did Mary wrap her mind and heart around this seismic shift and make sense of it? Perhaps, ultimately, understanding the message and its import didn’t matter as much as her entering into mystery with largeness of heart.

Mary, when our own lives are shaken and the angel departs from us, may we remember and embrace your example of trust in the promises of God.

Sr. Chris Koellhoffer, I.H.M. from Living Faith

Special Collection: Catholic Relief Services

This weekend our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. This collection supports six Catholic agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world. The funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ’s love and respect to all people. Next week, give generously to The Catholic Relief Services collection and help Jesus in disguise.

A Vocation View

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Jesus gave sight to the blind man. He will also give “insight” on what to do with our lives…if we ask Him. If you think God could be calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Andrew Merrick at 225.336.8778, amerrick@diobr.org.

Dedication of a Church

Through his death and resurrection, Christ became the true and perfect temple of the New Covenant and gathered together a people to be his own.

This holy people, made one as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are one, is the Church, that is, the temple of God built of living stones, where the Father is worshiped in spirit and in truth.

Rightly, then, from early times “church” has also been the name given to the building in which the Christian community gathers to hear the word of God, to pray together, to receive the sacraments, and to celebrate the eucharist.

Because the church is a visible building, it stands as a special sign of the pilgrim Church on earth and reflects the Church dwelling in heaven.

When a church is erected as a building destined solely and permanently for assembling the people of God and for carrying out sacred functions, it is fitting that it be dedicated to God with a solemn rite, in accordance with the ancient custom of the Church.

The very nature of a church demands that it be suited to sacred celebrations, dignified, evincing a noble beauty, not mere costly display, and it should stand as a sign and symbol of heavenly realities. Since the bishop has been entrusted with the care of the particular Church, it is his responsibility to dedicate to God new churches built in his diocese.

The tradition in the Roman liturgy of placing relics of martyrs or other saints beneath the altar should be preserved.

St. George is fortunate to have two relics for our new church. A relic of St. John Neumann, patron of Catholic Schools, will be placed in the Chapel Altar. A relic of St. Teresa of Calcutta, who has a special connection to the Baton Rouge community, will be placed in the Main Altar.

Encountering the Heart of God

A Day of Reflection for those in their 20's and 30's
Presented by Becky and Chris Eldridge

Encountering the Heart of God begins within us. A relationship with God, grounded in prayer, reveals to us God’s love and mercy, and we come to know our gifts. We also come to know God’s heart through our relationships with others and our encounters with the world. Receiving God’s love, healing, and mercy empowers us to face outward and offer these gifts to others.

Join us on April 1st to explore:
- How we encounter the heart of God within us, our relationships, and the world
- How our encounters with God call us outward to be men and women for others
